

Steve Rodowick

Steve Rodowick has been the Recycling Coordinator for Butte County since 2003. Prior to that he worked in the Solid Waste Industry in the customer service sector. Steve was principal architect in crafting Butte County's Illegal Dumping ordinance which has been used as a model in many rural jurisdictions around the State.

Among his duties, Steve manages Butte County's AB 939 waste diversion and recycling programs, collection and service contracts, grant management, regional HHW program and drop-off facility and a Regional Used Oil Program.

He has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration with an additional major in Geography from California State University, Chico.

Steve lives in Paradise with his wife, two dachshunds and three cats. Steve also serves on the Board of Directors for the Paradise Recreation and Park District.